Elizabeth Fries Ellet Event Release of Liability Waiver Form

You, the participant, acknowledge that a trail event/activity carries with it inherent risks including, but not limited to, the risk of injury. And you, the participant, freely accept and fully assume all such risk(s). Adults must assume this risk and sign the waiver for children under the age of 18. It is the responsibility of each participant to familiarize themselves with the risks and to decide whether or not to participate. The trail instructors and Writers Rising Up cannot and will not assume liability in respect to any of these risks, dangers, hazards and liabilities. Participants further acknowledge that it is their responsibility to ensure that they carry adequate medical, extended health, dental and accident insurance coverage, as well as protection for personal possessions. It is the participants individual responsibility, and their responsibility for those under the age of 18 in their care, to verify that they and those in their care are in good health and are physically capable of carrying out the trail activity. Therefore, in consideration of being allowed to participate, individuals and those under the age of 18 in their care, release the trail guides and its organizers, Writers Rising Up, executives, webmasters, email senders and all members from all liability in respect to any personal injury suffered, any damage or loss of personal property, which may arise out of participation in an activity. Anyone who does not sign the waiver, or does not sign the waiver for those in their care, cannot participate in the trail event/activity.
